Presentation

Overview

Glide Capital (“GLIDE”) offers firms an opportunity to invest in single deals using the Glide structure known as “Glide Direct”.

Creating a special vehicle to invest in a single deal using Glide Direct reduces legal fees and the time cost significantly.

Glide Capital will be the fund manager and deal with any registration issues, instruct on the fund transfers, monitor third parties, calculate the NAVs, audits, etc.

Key Metrics and Considerations

GLIDE's exponential growth placed it on the Inc. 5000 list in 2021 and 2022, recognizing it as one of the fastest growing private companies in the U.S.

Appendix

Activities Descriptions

Entity Formation and Registration Cost - Forming the company and registering it according to the fund's jurisdiction (Cayman, BVI, etc.).

PPM - Legal document that describes the offering terms, risk factors, company and management, use of proceeds, and subscription procedures. This document discloses everything the investors need to know to make an informed investment decision prior to investing.

Subscription Documents - Provides background information on the investor to the managers. These documents must be signed by the investor to approve subscription.

Fund Administrator - A third-party service provider that protects the interest of investors by independently verifying the assets and valuation of the fund.

Registration Cost - Paid annually, and this includes government fees and registered office.

Audit - An objective evaluation of the financial statements of a firm to make sure the information being presented is fair and an accurate representation of the firm's transactions.

Directors and FATCA Reporting: - Glide has hired independent directors for the Fund. FATCA reporting is necessary for the IRS to obtain detailed account information on US taxpayers who may be investing and earning income through non-US institutions.

Fund Management - Deals with any registration issues, instructs on fund transfers, monitors third parties, calculates the NAV, etc. (Glide's role)

Advisory - Reviewing, selecting and approving investments. (Investment Advisor's role)
